

St. John Lutheran School Tiger Pause

Mrs. Shellie Kosmerchock, Principal
March 4, 2020

Greetings Families of St. John,

This week was very special as we celebrated Right to Read week. The students had fun wearing wacky socks, fish and hats. Each day students took 15 minutes to drop everything and read. Reading is so important that celebrating this week is awesome.

Saturday is our big event, there is still time to buy tickets so stop in the office in the morning. There are many auction items up for bid and fun activities planned. The meal will be yummy and the fellowship will be unforgettable.

Have a great week.

Blessings,
Mrs. Kosmerchock

Funniest Moment

Our dog was mad because we didn't take her on a walk so she ran away. We had to pick her up at the police station.
